Since their launch in 2014, the job fairs have grown and expanded year on year. They offer a unique experience for the thousands of candidates who would like to find work on a cruise ship, and for those that attend, they are ten times more likely to get a job as a result of attending, compared to simply applying online.

In 2019 over 4,000 candidates attended a cruise job fair and many of them subsequently received job offers as a result of meeting the recruiters in person.

Why you should attend a job fair in 2020:

- Meet face-to-face with up to 25 recruiters – all in one location in one day
- Hand out your CV and promote yourself directly
- Ask questions and get immediate feedback in person
- Get valuable tips and advice
- Find out about training opportunities and options

Don't miss out on this ideal opportunity to meet and discuss current and future vacancies on cruise ships, as well as finding out everything you have ever wanted to ask about working on a cruise ship.

Managing Director of Webix, Jay Dravecky says: “All of the leading cruise lines, concessionaires and recruiters will attend the Cruise Job Fairs in 2020 and they are a fantastic opportunity for both candidates and recruiters to meet in person. We get a wide range of exhibitors at each event who are all looking for top quality candidates for a huge variety of positions covering all cruise ship departments including deck and engine, retail, spa and beauty, food and beverage, accommodation, guest services and more.”
